

WHITEHEAD WAS NOT TO BLAME

Assemblyman Hall Tells the Truth About the Tax Bills.

COULD NOT PASS

Hence the Bills Were Withdrawn--Belies the LaFollette Press Reports.

THE TRUE STORY

So much has been said by the LaFollette press throughout the state during the last campaign as to Senator Whitehead's stand on the taxation bills before the last legislature that an authentic statement from Assemblyman Hall of Dunn county is more than interesting. Not only does it completely exonerate the Senator of any charge of consistency that has been brought against him but it also shows clearly that he has been much maligned by the press of the executive machine.

Assemblyman A. R. Hall is one of Governor LaFollette's strongest supporters. He has stood by the Governor through thick and thin and has never wavered in his support of the state's present executive. A statement from him after Mr. Whitehead has been maligned by the press should have more value than any passage ever found in the LaFollette hand book written without any regard for the true facts of the case for campaign purposes only.

To the City of Janesville, to the farmers of the county of Rock, this statement from Mr. Hall will be of exceeding interest as it shows clearly from a LaFollette supporter that Senator Whitehead was consistent and that he only withdrew the bill so often mentioned, to protect the Tax Commission and it should be so understood.

The interview as published in the Sentinel of Thursday last is as follows:

Eau Claire, Wis., July 2.—Governor LaFollette has no stronger supporter in Wisconsin than is Assemblyman A. R. Hall of Dunn county. For years he has stood for many of the ideas which give identity to LaFolletteism in Wisconsin. In fact, without Hall, it is doubtful if there would be much to give popular tendency to the movement. No man better than A. R. Hall is entitled to speak authoritatively in reference to the taxation bills, and when he says in fact that the withdrawal of these bills in the senate, for which Senator Whitehead is being censured by the LaFollette press and support, was done to protect the Tax Commission, credit should be given to what he says. In addition to this Mr. Hall was influenced by the same reason when in the assembly. After the defeat of the two railway taxation bills, he withdrew the remaining two bills, known as the Tax Commission bills, which provided for the taxation of express, sleeping car, transportation and other quasi-public corporations.

It is only reasonable to suppose that so strong a supporter of Governor LaFollette as is Mr. Hall would in all ways protect the man who is a candidate for re-nomination, but when asked to state why the bills were withdrawn he said:

After the defeat of the two bills looking to an increase of the taxes upon railway companies Senator Whitehead and myself, acting for our respective committees met and talked the matter over. While I may have been mistaken in doing what I did, after considering the matter I concluded to withdraw the bills. It was Senator Whitehead's opinion that the defeat of all the tax commission bills pending before the legislature might have an influence to injure the commission. These bills were not considered very important, and their purpose was more to bring these corporations under the general plan of taxation as proposed by the commission rather than to increase the taxes upon this class of property.

Committees Acted Jointly
"There were several meetings of the committee and it was understood that Senator Whitehead was to notify the railway corporations that the bills would come up for hearing and that the committees would meet in joint session to consider the matter. The two committees generally met together. As chairman of the senate and assembly committee Senator Whitehead and myself took the matter up."

Mr. Hall was asked if there was not a specific agreement or arrangement to the effect that these railway taxation bills were to be pushed in the assembly, and if this agreement had not been made between himself and Senator Whitehead.

To this question he replied: "No such agreement or arrangement was made. Acting for our respective committees, Senator Whitehead and I took the matter up and hearings were had. I at first thought that the bills could be reported favorably out of the assembly committee and believed that they could be passed through that body. One of the corporation representatives came to me one day and wanted to know why the bills were not reported out. I told him that they were being considered every day. Even at that time I looked for a favorable report and was as much surprised as any man could be when the bills came out with the majority favoring indefinite postponement."

No Help From LaFollette Men
When Mr. Hall was asked if in his opinion the bills could not have been passed if it had not been for the friction created by the Stevens primary election bill agitation, after considering the matter, he said:

"No; the bills could not have been passed in the senate. Something might have been done in the assembly other than what did occur." He spoke of the strong lobby against the bills and asked if any of the more prominent LaFollette lieutenants gave him any material assistance in the matter, he confessed that they did not. He said that Governor LaFollette manifested considerable impatience at the inaction of the committee.

However both Mr. Hall may be to say anything which would tend to show the malice on the part of the LaFollette press and support which charges Senator Whitehead with responsibility for the defeat of them from the senate files after the defeat of the two most important measures in the assembly, where it is generally understood that they were to be pushed, the fact remains that he was actuated by the same motives which characterized Whitehead. It was solely to protect the tax commission from the disrepute of having every measure introduced by it meet defeat at the hands of the legislature. He admits that there was a conference between himself and Senator Whitehead at the time the bills were defeated and the matter of the withdrawal of the bills came up and was discussed by the two chairmen of the committees on assessment and collection of taxes.

The railway taxation bills as well as those imposing additional taxes upon other quasi public corporations, were known as having originated with the tax commission and were advocated by the commission. The defeat sustained when the two principal features were killed after many hearings and arguments all tended to bring the findings of the commission not only under favorable discussion, but in the opinion of members of the legislature favorable to the commission the defeat of the remaining bills would appear like a direct slap at the commission, which would have a tendency to bring it into disrepute and impair its serviceability to the state.

Hall Stands By Whitehead
In this connection it can be said Senator Whitehead has repeatedly given his reasons why, as chairman of the committee and acting for it, he made the motion to withdraw the bills. The statement of Assemblyman Hall reinforces the declaration of Senator Whitehead and shows conclusively the falsity of the charge of imputing the honesty of Whitehead's purposes.

So far as the political significance of the entire matter is concerned, Senator Whitehead as well as Assemblyman Hall, knew where he stood after noses had been counted, and the only political mistake made was not to force some of the "reform" senators to disclose their position the present administration are today would have come with convincing force to the people of Wisconsin as showing the pretenses and hypocrisy of at least some of the men, who, in their efforts to obtain a re-nomination on the LaFollette wagon or in their attempts to continue on the question of taxation when they had speeches prepared in opposition to the tax commission measure to be delivered on the floor of the senate. There is no guess work about this for some of the speeches of some of these leading exponents of reform can be produced if necessary.

By the withdrawal of the bills, acting in good faith to protect the best interests of the tax commission, Senator Whitehead and some other men have been made the butt of LaFollette abuse and misrepresentation, when some of the LaFollette leaders in the senate ought to go down on their knees night and morning and reverentially give thanks that the facts are not made the matter of public discussion. Hall was up against the same condition in the assembly, where the tax commission measures were defeated because of the action of the LaFollette men.

COAL STRIKE IS TO BE CONTINUED

Miners in Bituminous Fields Are Liable To Be Called Out July 17.

(Special By Scripps-McKee)
WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 5.—Unless the anthracite operators make some proposition to the striking miners for a settlement there will be no change in the situation and the strike will drift along until the seventeenth when a convention will be held to consider a general strike all over the country of the bituminous fields.

Loss in Millions
It is estimated that the loss to the miners up to date will reach $11,500,000 and still there is no complaint heard by the sufferers. No open discontent is shown or can be heard of among the miners.

CAN'T FIND ROBBERS

Police At Sea Over the Identity of Robbers of Rock Island Train

(Special By Scripps-McKee)
Chicago, Ill., July 5.—The police are at sea over the identity of the robbers of the Rock Island express on Thursday night near Joliet. They have no clue to the two men who held up the train.

Release Lessor
Charles Lessler, the man arrested as an accomplice, has satisfied the police that he was an unwilling aid to the robbers and will be released.

AWFUL WRECK IN THE EAST

Train on a Mountain Railway Breaks in Two and Runs Away.

TWELVE KILLED

Fifty Injured by Overturning of Cars, Which Are Smashed to Splinters.

MANY MORE WILL DIE

(Special By Scripps-McKee)
Gloversville, N. Y., July 5.—Twelve persons were killed and fifty more injured in a frightful railway accident near here last night on the Mountain Lake railroad. Several cars are derailed and all traffic over the line is blocked this morning.

How It Happened
The accident occurred at a point just where the road starts to go up the steep incline of the mountain and was at a short curve where the road was the steepest.

In some way one of the cars at the rear of the train became detached and ran away down the incline into the car ahead. The collision broke the coupling of the car in front and the two smashed into the car ahead.

Both cars were going at lightning speed and the first car swung off the track at the curve, turning completely over and crushing the life out of some of the passengers. The other two cars kept the track for a short distance and then turned over on their sides across the rails.

Who Are Dead
Mrs. Edward Baird, Electa Baird, Margaret Main, Mrs. Orman Easton, Edward Davis, Edward Trevitt, unknown boy, Mrs. Saloy and son, an unidentified woman, Sheridan and Brown.

STATE NOTES

The LaCrosse City Railway strike was averted by an increase in the wages of all of the employees.

All telephone, street railway, electric light and telegraph poles at Appleton are to be painted a dark green.

Rev. J. Reinhart of Manitowish has dug his grave, ordered his coffin and prepared his tombstone in readiness for his death.

Through the efforts of Senator Charles Marinette has been voted a $50,000 appropriation for river and harbor improvement.

A new stock company with a capital of $25,000 has been organized at Oshkosh for the manufacture of spring beds and mattresses.

A plate glass window was broken and about $50 worth of fireworks destroyed at Tomah in a shop window by the explosion of a cap.

The annual session of the Wisconsin association of Letter Carriers was held in West Superior with an attendance of about one hundred.

While cleaning machinery at the LaCrosse city pumping station, Jake Ritter, the assistant engineer, had his arm pulled off and will probably die.

John H. Casford, for more than twenty years a conductor on the C. M. & St. P. R. R., died at Milwaukee and was taken to his home at Beloit.

It is believed that W. D. Gettle, who disappeared after leaving Milwaukee on the steamer Racine committed suicide by jumping overboard.

William Grotholtschen of Fond du Lac, who left home secretly some weeks ago and upon whom foul play was suspected, has returned to his home.

Millwaukee will be the scene of the next encampment of the Spanish-American war veterans, if he succeeds in securing the next National encampment.

Great mystery surrounds the disappearance of Emil Schubert from Milwaukee, and the finding of the body of his friend, Charles Neupert, in the river.

Mrs. Eliza Koefler, who disappeared two weeks ago while in a demented condition, was found dead in a dark cellar, where she had evidently died several days ago.

A man named Wilson was found by a Prairie du Chien train crew with two holes in his head. His woman companion attempted to escape and when re-captured refused to talk.

Oshkosh police have been unable to identify the woman who was drowned in the Chicago & Northwestern canal at Oshkosh. Her name is probably Mrs. Joe Wickert.

Rev. Seth M. Wilson, of Boone, Ia., will occupy the pulpit of St. Paul's Episcopal church at Milwaukee for the next four Sundays and may be called upon to become the permanent pastor.

Prof. L. D. Harvey, state superintendent of schools, who was to have addressed the National Educational association at Minneapolis, has been forced to give up his place on the program on account of illness.

CAR MEN TO STRIKE

Chicago Street Car Employees Are On the Verge of a Strike

Chicago, Ill., July 5.—Men employed on the North and West Side division of the city car lines are talking strike. They claim that the company has violated the agreement made during the recent trouble. If they go out over one million residents will be affected.

MANY SUFFER FROM INJURIES

Toy Pistols, Fire Crackers and Runaways Make Up the Day's List.

SEVERAL INJURED

A Runaway Injures Occupants of a Buggy, and Valuable Horse Is Killed.

FOURTH'S DISASTERS

The Fourth, with its noise, its heat, its picnics, excursions and accidents is over and the majority of people are pleased that it has passed and no deaths have resulted from the giant firecracker and the toy cannon. Quite a number of accidents are recorded, none of them serious enough to cause death, but serious enough to mark the victim for life.

The fun started early Thursday night and was kept up without a let-up, until late last night. All kinds and descriptions of fire works and fire arms were brought into play to make a noise and cause trouble, from the little Chinese cracker to the big dynamite affair made in this country.

No Regular Celebration
Janesville had no regular celebration, but all the neighboring towns did and every train that left the city was crowded with pleasure seekers, bound for Beloit, Edgerton, Watertown and the numerous summer resorts about the country. The railroad agents say that they had the largest excursion business out of Janesville yesterday that they have had in years.

A Big Picnic.
The picnic of the Maccabees of Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin, was the main event during the day. The picnic was held at Chastal Springs Park about three miles up the river and was well patronized. An attractive program of games and athletic contests was carried out and added much to the pleasures of the afternoon.

Evening Celebration.
In the evening, the crowd drifted toward the open ground near the end of Court street, where a beautiful display of fire works was held on the side hill, east of the valley. It was an ideal place for fire works, being on a hill where all could get an unobstructed view of the display. The Y. M. C. A. band was present and rendered a number of selections while the fire works were being set off. The display was gotten up by the residents of that part of the city, who were anxious to have a little celebration at home. The fireworks were under the supervision of George M. McKee, George S. Parker and F. H. Baack. There were also quite a number of private displays in different parts of the city.

The dance given by the A. O. H. at Assembly hall last evening was well patronized and all enjoyed a delightful time dancing to the sweet strains of Smith's orchestra.

The following are a few of the accidents that happened during Thursday and Friday:

Boy Injured
George Hessmann, a young son of Fred Hessmann, who resides at 212 North Franklin street was another Fourth of July victim and may lose the sight of his eyes from monkeying with a cannon. The cannon did not go off as he expected so he examined it to see what was the matter. Just about the time that he was busy fixing the priming the cannon exploded. The result was that the flame from the powder hit him in the face burning his eyeballs until they looked like pieces of raw meat. Dr. Joe Whiting attended to his injuries and thinks that if they are able to keep down the inflammation he will not lose his sight.

Another Boy Shot
Carl Hinde, a son of Albert Hinde who resides on Prairie avenue in the Second ward, is a victim of the toy pistol and the blank cartridge. The boy that shot him was not satisfied with blanks, and put BB shot in the pistol on top of the blank cartridge.

Shot in Fun
Young Hinde was standing inside the screen door of the Second Ward grocery when the boy with the toy pistol stepped up and putting the gun against the screen door pulled the trigger. The ball struck young Hinde on the left side about two inches below the nipple and penetrated so far into his body that Dr. Mills was unable to locate it. The doctor considers it a serious injury, but thinks that the boy will get along all right as he is resting easily today.

Another Toy Pistol
Arthur Achterberg, son of Charles F. Achterberg, was another victim of the toy pistol. He had a chunk of flesh knocked off the calf of his leg by the discharge of a pistol in the hands of Kenneth Jeffris. There was no bullet in the pistol, but it was held so close to his leg that the wad and the flame did the damage.

Decentful Bullets
Some boys down in the Fourth ward had an idea that if they cut off the bullets on an ordinary 22 cartridge even with the top of the shell the balance of the ball would do no harm. They succeeded in putting a bullet through the front window of L. M. Gosselin's home and narrowly escaped hitting Mr. Gosselin, who was sitting at the window.

Another Accident
Byron Comstock and wife of Milwaukee were the victims of a serious accident last night by reason of which Mrs. Comstock was badly injured and John Comstock lost a valuable driving mare.

Mr. Comstock, who is an engineer on the Northwestern out of Milwaukee, was in the city with his wife on a visit to relatives. Yesterday afternoon he borrowed his father's horse and buggy and with his wife went to Beloit to the races. They started home from Beloit last evening shortly after dark and had gone about a mile and a half when they met a man driving toward Beloit. It was quite dark at the time and before they knew it the wheels of the two buggies were locked together.

Buggies Collide
When the buggies collided Mr. Comstock spoke to his horse and pulled her up short. The sudden stopping of the buggy and the shock of striking the other buggy threw Mrs. Comstock forward over the dash board to the ground under the feet of the plunging horses and in front of the buggy wheels. The horses jumped around cutting Mrs. Comstock all over the body and wrecking the buggies.

Horse Runs Away
Mr. Comstock's horse finally succeeded in freeing herself from the buggy and started back towards Beloit on the run. Just inside the city limits at Beloit, some people had been moving a house and had left the building standing across the street. The horse collided with this building while going at full speed, and fell back with a broken neck from which she died in a short time.

Help Secured
After the horse had broken away Mr. Comstock, who was uninjured by the collision hastened to the relief of his wife, who was lying in the road covered with cuts and bruises. As soon as possible aid was secured from a neighboring farm house and Mrs. Comstock removed to Beloit, where she was given medical assistance. Mr. Comstock stated this morning that he did not know how badly his wife was hurt, but that she was seriously injured. Her sister, Mrs. Paul Colvin, left this morning at 11:30 for Beloit to help take care of her.

A Valuable Horse
The mare that was killed was highly prized by Mr. John Comstock, who owned her. She was a valuable animal and a pet of the family. She must have been badly frightened by the collision to have run away, as she was as kind as a kitten and never appeared to be afraid of anything, while being driven about the city by her owner.

Hand Badly Injured
Glen Brown had the palm of his right hand torn out by the accidental discharge of a thirty-two calibre revolver with which he was ushering in the Fourth about 5 o'clock yesterday morning. Dr. Walter Merritt attended him but young Brown will be disabled for some time.

Farmer Hurt
John Brant, who resides on Homer Paul's farm in the town of LaPrairie monkeyed with a cannon firecracker yesterday and as a consequence his first finger on his left hand is shy a joint and he has a badly battered thumb. Dr. Pember attended his injuries.

BANQUETS OVER HALF A MILLION

Poor of London Eat and Drink at His Majesty's Expense.

JOYFUL SCENES

Guests Entertained by Two Thousand Actors Who Volunteered Their Services.

THE KING IS BETTER

(Special By Scripps-McKee)
London, July 5.—The official bulletin issued by His Majesty's physicians this morning say that the King is much improved in health and is cheerful and feels much stronger.

Feed A Half Million
The King's monster dinner set for today was held despite his Majesty's absence. For the most part the dinners were given in the small parks throughout the city and in the small halls. It is estimated that over a half million persons were fed in the different places.

Cost $150,000.
The dinner cost in the neighborhood of 30,000 English pounds or $150,000. Nearly all the destitute and many whose wages are below the living scale were among those fed. The Prince and Princess of Wales visited the various dining halls and were well received.

The Bill of Fare
The dinner was a typical English one and consisted of steak, kidney pies, veal pies, ham, roast beef, potatoes, tarts, cheese, beer and lime juice.

Guests Amused
The guests were amused by 2,000 actors and actresses who volunteered for the occasion. Even the poorest homes' guests showed some effort at dress for the occasion and bright ribbons adorned many a ragged suit and dress.

God Save The King
Each dinner party at some time or another sang, "God Save The King" with a vim seldom seen before. At Bishop's Park fourteen thousand sat down and at the Islington omnibus factory ten thousand ate and drank to the King's health and speedy recovery.

ROOSEVELT NEEDS SENATOR SPOONER

Walter Wellman, in The Record-Herald, Tells Washington's Opinion.

Walter Wellman, the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Record-Herald, telegraphs the following to his paper of Senator Spooner and the high esteem in which he is held in Washington:

"Senator Spooner left the capital today for a well-earned rest in New York and New England. During the last week Mr. Spooner has been urged by many of his Wisconsin friends to make formal withdrawal of his letter written, a year or more ago, announcing that he would not be a candidate for re-election to the senate. He has resisted all of these appeals. It is not probable he will soon make public announcement of his attitude. It is possible that he may never do so.

"Thus has arisen one of the strangest situations in American politics. Mr. Spooner's enemies in his state are taking advantage of the letter which he wrote some time ago and are seeking to elect members of the legislature hostile to him. Without doubt, if Mr. Spooner were to recall that letter, most of the opposition would cease. But so far he stands all of the appeals of his friends to do so.

What Should Be Done
"In the opinion of leading republicans at Washington, from President Roosevelt down, there is but one thought as to what the Republican party of Wisconsin should do. It should wholly ignore Mr. Spooner's letter. It should assume that he is a man who cannot be spared from the senate and who must come back whether he wishes to or not. If he is indifferent his indifference should be disregarded. If in the heat of political activity there are men in Wisconsin who think that they are opposed to Spooner's re-election, they should give up such opposition for the honor of their state and for the good of the party and the country as a whole.

President's Opinion
"This is President Roosevelt's opinion and while it is not for him to interfere in state politics, nor to attempt any seeming dictation, I understand he will sooner or later improve an opportunity to speak his mind on this point.

"No man is absolutely indispensable at Washington or anywhere else. But Spooner comes as near it as any man in congress. There is no dispute that he is now the most brilliant and useful man in the upper house. This is conceded by everyone. To his colleagues it is simply inconceivable there should be any question about his re-election. If to have a senator reach the very top in the greatest legislative body in the world is an honor to the state which sends him, Wisconsin should be, and undoubtedly is, very proud of Spooner."

RESUME OF WORK IN KINDERGARTEN

VERY SUCCESSFUL MOVEMENT

Promoters Are Well Pleased with the Results.—Association to Decorate Public Kindergartens.

Friday of last week, marked the close of the kindergarten supported by private enterprise, but the mission of the Janesville Kindergarten Association was practically at an end last spring when the board of education voted to establish kindergartens as a part of the public school system.

While the direct object of the Kindergarten Association was to provide educational advantages for as many children as possible, the real motive of the organization was to demonstrate so conclusively the value of the work that it would be recognized by the general public and the benefits of the kindergarten be placed within the reach of all children and all mothers. Promoters of the work hardly dared hope for the accomplishment of their desires so soon and they felt gratified over the success of their winter's work and naturally they take a special pride in the fact that next year the kindergartens will be conducted in connection with the graded schools.

Birth of the Kindergarten.
The movement was started by Rev. Robert C. Denison, to whom the credit of the association's idea is largely due. He and a few loyal assistants worked untiringly on the plan and the result was the formation of the association last October with a membership of sixty public spirited people. The officers of the association are Mrs. B. F. Dunwiddie, president; Mrs. W. F. Bosworth, vice president; Mrs. A. E. Matheson, secretary; Mrs. W. H. Ruger, Jr., treasurer; Mesdames Frank H. Blodgett, J. L. Bostwick and C. S. Jackman, executive committee.

The kindergarten was conducted for seven months with forty children in attendance, this being the limit that could be accommodated. Fully half of these children could not have afforded to attend a private kindergarten. From the first, the school attracted general interest and kind encouragement and the association feels especially indebted to the Janesville Music Co. for the free use of a piano. Many visitors attended the sessions, and to many of them the character of the work done was a revelation.

Some Unique Features.
Even though the influence of the kindergarten had been confined to the work actually done by the forty children, it would still have been an unqualified success. In addition to the regular work, the children have enjoyed several special occasions. They have been taken to the different stores and to such places as the railway depots and their ability to observe has been trained in many such novel ways. After such a visit, the work has been along the line suggested, the children illustrating what they had seen. The visit to the depot, for instance, was followed by the making of paper trucks, cars, etc., and the way they were handled by the railway men, was illustrated. On Christmas there was a tree, the decorations and the gifts all being made by the children. A short time ago there was a picnic in the woods and on the last day of school a closing party was held in the kindergarten rooms and ice cream and cake were served.

Birthday Parties.
When Master Caleb Blodgett celebrated his birthday, his mother, Mrs. F. H. Blodgett, inaugurated a pretty custom by sending an immense birthday cake and little gifts for the other children to the school. Other mothers followed her example and several of these birthday parties were held, the child whose anniversary it was, always sitting at the head of the table. The service was always very dainty and there were always floral decorations.

A Financial Success.
Financially, also, the venture has been a success. The total receipts were about $730.00 and of this sum there is a surplus of about $150.00. There were two hired teachers, Miss Myra Wilcox and Miss Grace Spoon and two cadets, Miss Estes and Miss Dudley, who gave their time for the training. These two cadets were each given ten dollars at the close of the year. Miss Grace Bladon also served as a cadet for a time.

Efficient Kindergartners.
To these young ladies and especially to Miss Wilcox, the head kindergarten, the school's great success is largely due and it is a subject for congratulations, that the four young ladies have been appointed as teachers in the public kindergartens. Miss Wilcox has won her way into the hearts of children and mothers alike and it is fortunate that her rare charm is still to influence the city kindergartens.

To Decorate New Rooms.
The material, most of it as good as new, is to be sold to the board of education at a reduction and the entire surplus in the treasury is to be devoted to decorating the new kindergartens. Rev. Robert C. Denison has been selected to expend the sum, which will be about $150. In pictures and casts and thus a lasting remembrance of the Janesville Kindergarten Association will be left in the public kindergartens, which it was so instrumental in securing at this time.

NORWEGIAN EAT'S COSTLY SANDWICH

Train Pulls Out with His Belongings while He Patronizes Depot Lunch Room

Considerable amusement was created at the C. M. & St. P. R. station on Monday at the time of the 1:40 train for the north. The comedian in the case was a tall, lumbering individual of Swedish origin who was travelling on the train. The Scandinavian had evidently gone by his usual dining hour without satisfying his appetite and attracted by the Lunch Room sign at the depot he had gotten off the train leaving his hat and other possessions in his seat. He had hardly had time to explain with his limited vocabulary of English that he wanted some lunch when the bell rang. Sandwich in hand and hair flying in the air he rushed out upon the platform just in time to see the last car moving off. A terrific sprint was made but in vain.

The defection of the giant as he came back the track was pathetic. Words failed him. Finally he turned to the amused audience and slowly explained, "Ay guess av no go to Carrington, Minnesota, today."

One of the onlookers took the hatless man down town and bought him a fifty cent hat, and then left him incoherently pouring forth a stream of Swedish gratitude.

TO HAVE MORE ROOM FOR PLAY

Second Ward Pupils Will Have Additional Room for Out-Door Exercises.

To allow additional playground space at the Second Ward school house the building belonging to E. A. Baum, which has been occupying the lot to the north of the school is being moved away. The cellar will soon be leveled over and the fence between the newly added lot and the school house will be removed. The house which is of one story, has been lifted from off its foundation by jack screws and is now resting upon three large double rollers which are connected by a V-shaped frame not unlike that of a farm wagon. It will be hauled from its present position to a lot on the Delavan road near Sharon street.

WORK IN LOCAL CITY INDUSTRIES

Corn Planters To Be Made by the Car Load—Gas House Buildings.

The building of the A. C. Kent Corn Planter Works is at present being occupied solely by the Taylor & Lowell Mfg. Co., which was previously located in the rooms owned by the Janesville Knitting works. The company has so recently moved its base of operations, that it is not yet fully settled down to the work that it will probably do in the future. It is already doing much more work than it did in its old quarters.

Car Load of Steel
A carload of steel has just been received for the corn planter works and this is generally taken as an indication that the company will soon resume work. The season of making corn planters continues for only about six months of the year.

Need Sunshine
At the Gas Plant work on the new crude oil tank is at a standstill until the sun shall see fit to beam radiantly enough upon the work to dry the fifteen inch layer of cement which forms the base of the tank. The metal part of the tank is on the spot and the workmen are waiting to put it in place but they have been slightly delayed by the damp weather of the past week.

CHURCH NOTICES.

COAL IS SCARCE AND PRICES RISE

JANESVILLE SUPPLY IS SMALL

To Be Long in the Black Diamond, Is an Assurance of Wealth.

During several days of the past week the public was all sympathy for the man who wished more fuel to keep his house warm. But it would probably make many eyes open in wonderment to learn that on Thursday last when the stereotyped phrase of greeting in the street was: "Is this warm enough for you?" there were persons in town who were anxiously wondering where they could buy more coal.

A coal man near the gas works was one of these. On that day his bins were being filled from the last carload of coal which he could procure. The car was shipped from Waukegan and was the last car on the tracks.

All kinds in it was everything from nut grade to chunks the size of a Georgia watermelon. Yet the coal dealer made no protest. He was only too thankful to get anything that looked like coal regardless of quality.

Dealers Are Fools
In his words, "Janesville coal men are fools." That staple article of fuel has already gone up in its cost to the dealer and all over the state the handlers are charging more to the consumer still the Janesville price remains firm.

No Hurry For Winter
Yet the Janesville public show no uneasiness anxiety to lay in a supply against a possible coal famine. Indeed according to some statements, actual distress seems likely to be unavoidable unless wood, gas and electricity be made to take the place of the carbonaceous product for heating purposes. Granting that it be only a short time before the docks again are supplied and the large dealers have it to dispose of even then the East will be attended to before the west and after that Chicago before the smaller places.

Lack of Advertising
Perhaps the indifference of users in this locality is in part due to the failure of the local dealers to advertise the possible shortage more freely. But as one of them said: "What's the use of trying to sell my coal? I can get all that I want of it in the fall and now I would not be making enough on it to pay for handling."

Long On Coal
If the statement of the dealers is to be taken as accurate there is little reason to suppose persons who are long on coal this autumn will be in danger of immediate bankruptcy.

SMILES.
"Do you think your father would offer me personal violence if I were to ask him for you?" "Hardly. But there's no telling what he will do if you don't say something pretty soon."—New York Times.

Tess, (after telling a joke)—Why don't you laugh? Don't you consider that funny? Jess—Oh, my, but that joke is old. Tess—Is it really, dear? Of course you ought to know.—Philadelphia Press.

A Job For the "Meenister."
(From the London Spare Moments.)
In a certain parish in Scotland, collectors were lately going around soliciting contributions for the kirk. On coming to a wretched little hovel they hesitated whether or not to enter, but finally decided to "try their luck."

A hale old man greeted them, and to him they explained their errand. But he really had nothing to give them he said.

"Can't ye gie up your whusky?" one of the visitors asked.

No, he said, he didn't drink "whusky."

Perhaps, then he could forego the pleasures of snuff? No, he didn't use snuff.

The collectors prepared to move on.

"Stop a bit!" cried the old fellow.

"I pay Sandy, the barber, twopence every Saturday night for shaving me. Tell the minister he can have the twopence if he'll come and shave me himself."

Guarding Against Trouble.
"Will, my little man," said the preacher, "how old are you?"
"Do they let boys into heaven free?" the little man asked.
"Certainly, my good little fellow. Heaven is free to everyone."
"Don't they have to pay half fare if a boy is over 6 years old?"
"No, the way to heaven is free to all."

The Widow Malone.
(By Chas. Lever.)
Did you hear of the Widow Malone, Ohone!
Who lived in the town of Athlone, Alone?
Oh! she melted the hearts!
Of the swains in them parts—
So lovely the Widow Malone, Ohone!
So lovely the Widow Malone.

Of lovers she had a full score
Or more;
And fortunes they all had galore
In store;
From the minister down,
To the clerk of the crown,
All were courting the Widow Malone, Ohone!
All were courting the Widow Malone.

But so modest was Mistress Malone,
'Twas known
That no one could see her alone, Ohone!
Let them ogle and sigh,
They could ne'er catch her eye—
So bashful the Widow Malone, Ohone!
So bashful the Widow Malone,

Till one Mither O'Brien from Clare—
How queer!
It's little or blushing they care
Down there—
Put his arms round her waist,
Gave ten kisses at last—
"Oh," says he, "you're my Molly Malone!"

"Oh," says he, "you're my Molly Malone!"
And the widow they all thought so shy
My eye!
Ne'er thought of a simper or sigh—
For why?
But, "Lucius," says she,
"Since you're now made so free
You may marry your Mary Malone."
Ohone!
You may marry your Mary Malone.

There's a moral contained in my song
Not wrong,
And, one comfort, it's not very long
But strong;
If for widows you die
Learn to kiss, not a sigh,
Oh, they're all like sweet Mistress Malone!
Ohone!
Oh! they all like sweet Mistress Malone!

TRADE CONDITIONS ARE SATISFACTORY

Review of Business for the Six Months Ended
July 1.

RAILROAD EARNINGS INCREASE

Grain Prices Show Good Improvement,
Corn and Oats Showing Good Advance—Failure Record Is Deemed Favorable.

New York, July 5.—"Quiet conditions have prevailed in most branches of business, especially in those markets already affected by labor disputes. Large interest payments testify to the prosperous condition of railways, industrial corporations and financial institutions, and, aside from the labor troubles, the half-year just ended was remarkably satisfactory. Railway earnings for June exceeded last year's 6.4 per cent and those of 1900 by 19.9 per cent. The foregoing is from the weekly review of R. G. Dun & Co. It continues:

"In the iron and steel districts there have been no developments of importance. Leather, is dull and hides are weak. In the textile markets the cotton goods sold freely at recent concessions and the tone was steady, while woolen mills are more actively engaged and buyers are in the Eastern markets for raw material.

"Quotations of wool made a further slight advance and firmness is expected at the London auction sale next Tuesday.

Grain Prices Higher.

"The general level of grain prices is higher for the week, especially corn and oats. Eastern markets reflected the strength, but did not share the activity. Both receipts and exports have been light, wheat arrivals amounting to only 2,463,393 bu. against 2,859,040 last year, and exports from all ports of the United States were 2,724,639 bushels, compared with 2,876,103 in 1901. Cotton prospects brightened with rain in the Southwest, yet there was no weakness. The crop year closed with receipts of coffee at Brazil ports far surpassing all records and prices remained at the bottom point.

"In spite of many serious drawbacks railroad earnings for the half year just closed are the largest ever reported. Total gross earnings of all railroads in the United States reporting for the half year to date are $618,470,508, a gain of 5.7 per cent over last year and 18.7 per cent over 1900. This report is practically complete for roads embracing three-fourths of the total mileage of the United States for five months, and includes partial returns for June.

Failures Increase.

"Commercial failures in the first half of 1902 numbered 6,165, with liabilities of $60,374,856. Although this is an increase of $1,570,166 compared with last year and $18,311,923 more than the exceptionally favorable record of 1899, it is necessary to go back fifteen years to find another more gratifying showing than that of 1902. Despite a few exceptionally heavy failures in British Columbia, total liabilities in the Dominion of Canada for the first half of the year were only $5,729,451, against $5,530,926 last year, while the number of defaults, 610, compares favorably with all recent years."

SCOPE OF BURKE RELIEF FUND

Committee to Meet Soon to Outline Plans for the Work.

New York, July 5.—Trustees of the Winifred Masterson Burke relief foundation, which was established by John M. Burke's gift of $1,000,000, announce that a meeting for the appointment of an advisory committee will be held soon in order that a committee on plan and scope may be appointed and get to work at once. Former Mayor Abram S. Hewitt will become Mr. Burke's spokesman in this matter when the plans are under way. Mr. Burke, who has been ill with a cold since the announcement of his gift, is much better.

Struck by Rocket.

Marquette, Mich., July 5.—State Legislator John R. Gordon had a hole torn through his hand by a skyrocket. At the last session of the legislature Gordon presented a bill to prevent the use of fireworks, but was induced to withdraw it before action was taken. He says he will reintroduce the bill at the next session.

Left $500,000.

New York, July 5.—Though the will of Edward N. Marks, who died recently, says the estate is worth "upward of $200,000," it is stated by counsel for the beneficiaries, the widow and children and some close relatives, that it will amount to $500,000.

Liabilities, $1,500,000; Assets, $100.
New York, July 5.—Walden Pell Anderson, who has been an extensive operator in real estate in this city, has filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court. The liabilities are given at $1,535,212; assets, $100.

Library President.

Galesburg, Ill., July 5.—The board of directors of the new public library to which Carnegie gave $50,000 elected as the president F. C. Rice, superintendent of the Illinois lines of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad.

ALBION
Albion, July 3.—F. H. Drake spent Saturday with relatives in Beloit. Mrs. L. R. Head and children of Madison are visiting relatives.

M. G. Sullivan of West Virginia gave an illustrated lecture in the town hall on Thursday evening on "Ben Hur." An overabundance of rain is the general complaint.
The Rev. P. T. Davis of Leonardsville, N. Y., has been spending the past few days with Albion friends.
John Bilven was called to Chicago Monday to bring home the remains of his brother Henry who died Sunday in the hospital. The funeral of the deceased was held Wednesday afternoon, the Rev. A. W. Stephens of Edgerton officiating.
Chas. Bond, of Milton, visited Saturday with his aunt, Mrs. H. M. Stout.

Howard Saunders and Miss Ester Townsend of Milton, attended church on Sabbath day.
The tobacco setting season in this section is rapidly drawing to a close.

PORTER
Porter, July 3.—Mr. Hastings of Johnson's Creek is doing the work at Eagle creamery this week owing to the illness of the butter maker, Frank Bass.
G. W. Nichols and family and W. Barrett and family spent Sunday at Crystal Springs Park.
Miss Jennie Towns returned to her home in Iowa Saturday.
Miss Katie Watson, of Janesville spent last week with relatives here.
Miss Nellie Peach has been spending a few weeks with her sister in Evansville.
Ernest Peach has a new buggy.
Vera Bass has been ill with the croup.

MOTHERS MUST GUIDE

Should Watch the Physical Development of Their Daughters. Earnest Words From Mrs. Pinkham to Mothers.

Every mother possesses information of vital value to her young daughter. That daughter is a precious legacy, and the responsibility for her future is largely in the hands of the mother. The mysterious change that develops the thoughtless girl into the thoughtful woman should find the mother on the watch day and night. As she cares for the physical well-being of her daughter, so will the woman be, and her children also.

When the young girl's thoughts become sluggish, when she experiences headaches, dizziness, faintness, and exhibits an abnormal disposition to sleep, pains in the back and lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude, and a dislike for the society of other girls, when she is a mystery to herself and friends, then the mother should go to her aid promptly. At such a time the greatest aid to nature is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It prepares the young system for the coming change, and is the surest reliance in this hour of trial.

The following letters from Mrs. Southard are practical proof of Mrs. Pinkham's efficient advice to young women.

Mothers Who Allow Their Daughters to Suffer are Cruel When Relief is Easily Obtained. Read This Mother's Experience.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish advice in regard to my daughter. She is thirteen years old and never menstruated. We have had the doctor to her and he said she did not have enough blood. She has been taking iron for three months but is no better. In the morning she vomits, some days she cannot keep anything on her stomach until twelve o'clock. If she tries to do anything she gets faint. Has headache all the time, is as white as marble with great dark rings under her eyes. Please write and tell me what to do as I am discouraged with the doctor."—Mrs. CHAS. SOUTHARD, Phoenix Mills, N.Y. (Jan. 10, 1900.)

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Last January I wrote you about my daughter, and told you what our family doctor said about her. I saw another doctor and he said she had quick consumption. After receiving your letter, I began giving her your remedies, and after taking four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and four of Blood Purifier, she is now well and strong as ever. Menstrues have appeared and are regular. I can never praise your remedies enough for they saved my daughter's life."—Mrs. CHAS. SOUTHARD, Phoenix Mills, N.Y. (Dec. 16, 1900.)

Any young girl or any mother is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice in regard to her sickness. No one has had greater experience or success in guiding mothers and their daughters to health. Thousands have trusted her and are glad. She charges nothing for advice. Write to-day.

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

SCROFULA

I bequeath to my children Scrofula with all its attendant horrors, humiliation and suffering. This is a strange legacy to leave to posterity; a heavy burden to place upon the shoulders of the young.

This treacherous disease dwarfs the body and hinders the growth and development of the faculties, and the child born of blood poison, or scrofula-tainted parentage, is poorly equipped for life's duties.

Scrofula is a disease with numerous and varied symptoms; enlarged glands or tumors about the neck and armpits, catarrh of the head, weak eyes and dreadful skin eruptions upon different parts of the body show the presence of tubercular or scrofulous matter in the blood. This dangerous and stealthy disease entrenches itself securely in the system and attacks the bones and tissues, destroys the red corpuscles of the blood, resulting in white swelling, a pallid, waxy appearance of the skin, loss of strength and a gradual wasting away of the body.

S. S. S. combines both purifying and tonic properties, and is guaranteed entirely vegetable, making it the ideal remedy in all scrofulous affections. It purifies the deteriorated blood, makes it rich and strong and a complete and permanent cure is soon effected. S. S. S. improves the digestion and assimilation of food, restores the lost properties to the blood and quickens the circulation, bringing a healthy color to the skin and vigor to the weak and emaciated body.

Write us about your case and our physicians will cheerfully advise and help you in every possible way to regain your health. Book on blood and skin diseases free.

TELL HIM SO.

If you have a word of cheer That might light the pathway dear Of a brother pilgrim here,

Let him know.

Show him you appreciate What he does; and do not wait Till the heavy hand of Fate

Lays him low.

If your heart contains a thought That will brighten make this lot,

Then, in mercy, hide it not; Tell him so.

Wait not till your friend is dead Ere your compliments are said; For the spirit that has fled,

If it know,

Does not need to spend it on Our poor praise; where it has gone Love's eternal, golden dawn

Is aglow.

But unto our brother here That poor praise is very dear; If you've any word of cheer

Tell him so.

—J. A. Egerton, in Denver News.

The choice sentiment expressed in the little poem, is well worth cultivating.

The journey of life is so eventful and so uncertain withal, that its significance is not always appreciated.

It is so natural to live within ourselves, that the habit is easily formed and the complex conditions of surroundings are not always taken into account.

There is an old saying found in the old book, that reads, "No man liveth to himself and no man dieth to himself," but that was written when the world was young and before the days of modern society.

While it is true in a sense today, it is also true that in this age of rush and hurry, that too many of us live too largely within ourselves.

Society, of whatever strata, is made up of two classes.

"The hale fellow well met," applies to a limited class of men and women whose presence is like a ray of sunshine.

They have a kindly greeting for everybody, and the warm clasp of the hand leaves the impression that they have a personal interest in individual welfare.

You may not know them very well, but you are not long in finding them out, for they belong to humanity.

If you have ever studied the character of this class of people, you have discovered that they were optimistic.

If there is any bright side to a proposition, they always find it, and if there is any trouble to be cultivated, they studiously avoid it.

Borrowed trouble is not a part of their creed. They have learned that choice secret, that real trouble is not the common lot, so they never cross any bridges in advance.

You say of this class of people, "I don't understand how they manage to get so much out of life" and yet they are simply getting the share that was intended for every man and woman in normal condition.

The larger class and they are met on every corner, are so busily engrossed in self and self interests, that they pass you on the street with a nod or without recognition.

They are working out a destiny for themselves and largely by themselves, failing to recognize the fact that every other man and woman they meet, is engaged in the same occupation.

Life, to them, is a serious proposition. So serious in fact, that it absorbs every energy and drives away every smile.

They do not see far enough ahead to discover that a very small parcel of ground will contain all that is mortal at the end of the journey.

There may be a monument to mark the spot, but that will be cold consolation. Better the memory of a cheerful life, with the warm lips of grateful homage, than the marble shaft.

Life is what we get out of it every day. Too many people live in anticipation and in their planning make no account of the uncertainties.

Every energy is bent to accumulate and somewhere in the dim and hazy future a goal is placed and, if it is ever reached, they propose to commence the enjoyment of life.

In the meantime the finer sensibilities are sacrificed in the monotonous grind of every day toil, and the capacity for enjoyment is weakened or destroyed.

The little courtesies, that contribute so much to the happiness of the home, are neglected and the cheery "good morning," to the friend on the street, is forgotten.

The business of life becomes absorbing, and there is no time for sentiment.

It is all a mistaken notion. While ambition should be encouraged and work accomplished with a will and to a purpose, yet living should be a matter of daily completeness.

There is no promise of a future where matured plans may yield enjoyment and if the plans work out, they are under changed conditions and disappointment results.

An old gentleman, who had been so busy all his life, that he couldn't find time to visit his children in a neighboring state, said to one of his boys as he said "good bye," to him at the old homestead:

"Tell your boys that if their granfather don't get time to visit them here, that he will make them a good long visit up in heaven after a while." To which the boy replied, "I'm afraid you won't know them when you meet them."

There are many families in the same condition, and some of them live under the same roof. It is a fact, not always considered, that families either grow apart, or become cemented in a bond of loving fellowship and the home life determines which direction the development shall take.

It is possible to make the home so attractive, that the boy and girl leave it with regret, when they start out in life for themselves and the memory clings to them and calls them back long after their own homes are established.

In these homes, love was the corner stone and loving sympathy and helpfulness entered into every fibre of the structure. The honeymoon of early experience, stretched on into the years, and the children recognized in the father and mother, a pair of old time lovers. Every want was anticipated and every thought taken in the family circle.

It was no uncommon thing to hear the father say, as he pushed his chair back from the table, "That was a good breakfast, Mary; you always knew how to cook," and then the mother would smile at the compliment and say, "Thank you, John. I'm glad you enjoyed it." There was no lack of appreciation and no false modesty about expressing it and the expression of appreciation means everything in a home.

There is another class of homes and they are all too common, where the children are glad to escape. The place has but little connected with it, save food, shelter and raiment to inspire loving memories. The altar fires have been burned so low that the warmth of love is exhausted.

The father is so absorbed in business, that he has but little time to devote to the home and the family see so little of him, that they hardly know him. The mother, left to her own resources, has long since discovered that she made a mistake in casting her lot in life with a man who had no time to live and so they drift apart. They never go into society together, and have but little in common.

The children scatter and the man and woman are back where they started, both prematurely old and unhappy. The wife drops out and her resting place is marked by a monument that is a travesty on love and a burlesque on the sacred name of home.

There are too many roses in the grave yard, and too few in the parlor. While it is well to reverence the memory of the dead, it is better to help the living. If the sentiment expressed in the little poem, "Tell him so" was generally adopted, life would be prolonged and some of the graves that receive so much attention, would be without occupants for years to come.

The expression of appreciation should be cultivated, not only in the home, but everywhere. The child craves it and a word of encouragement causes the eye to sparkle. It is like a tonic to every life when honestly expressed. In every department of life the "well done" is always an incentive to better doing.

"Wait not till your friend is dead, Ere your compliments are said."

If you think your wife is too old to appreciate a word of good cheer, put your arm about her and as you kiss the care worn cheek, tell her that she looks better to you than she did forty years ago and watch the smile and blushes that chase each other over her face.

While life is a serious proposition, it is entitled to a great deal more happiness than many people get out of it and when the secret of every day living is more fully discovered, there will be more joy than sorrow and more sunshine than cloud.

Russell Sage, who has been working for seventy years, says he is not going to retire. He intends to keep up his work as long as he is able. Should he ever decide to take some recreation, he will doubtless, sit at his ease in a hard chair and watch the ticker count up how many thousands he is making.

After many years of joking about sharpeners selling unsuspecting countrymen the Masonic Temple, in Chicago, for a nominal sum, a Chicago man, and a smart one too, paid $1,000 yesterday for a small portion of it. The sheriff was the "con" man this trip.

Every true gentleman should take care and remember Senator Bailey's code. If he cannot remember it, he should secure a copy and place it in his hat. It is of the utmost importance to know just when to slap a man, to strangle him or kick him in the ribs.

The Chicago post office will be ready when the postmaster moves in. This the architect in charge names as the exact date.

PRESS COMMENT

The new catch-phrase of the Elks is "Good Morning, Carrie." So that if ever Mrs. Nation bumps in to their vicinity they will be prepared.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

A farmer named Jingle over near Cannon is to be married to a girl named Bell. They will be married by the ring ceremony.—Sheboygan Journal.

Last year at this time the county was burning up, and farmers sighed for rain. Complaints about the weather were as numerous then as now.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

There will be no bolting convention of the "bolters" at Madison. The convention will not be divided in a way to make such a movement excusable. Otherwise there is no knowing what would happen.—Milwaukee Free Press.

The majority must rule and this majority must be an honest one, therefore, which ever wins out at Madison it is hoped sincerely the majority will be of unquestioned regularly elected delegates, and all the proceedings of that character that will commend itself for their fairness.—Racine Journal.

If Rock county feels badly over the course of Racine county on the face of the returns electing a majority of delegates to the convention against Senator Whitehead, it cannot be blamed. It is in the nature of things that if it leads to opposition to Racine county in the next congressional convention it will not be surprising.—Racine Journal.

The Stalwarts at Madison conceded the nomination of the governor several days before the Grant county convention was held. There isn't a Stalwart in the state who knows enough to step under cover when it rains but conceded it after hearing from Racine. The concession was not made publicly or for publication, but it was made.—Milwaukee Free Press.

Little "Bob" LaFollette, got lost during a visit to Ringling's circus last Saturday, but was found later on busily engaged in feeding peanuts to the elephants. It is hoped that the youngster's efforts to stand in with the big pachyderms were more harmonious than those of his father with the Wisconsin G. O. P. elephant have been thus far.—Milwaukee News.

The LaFollette men are now claiming that it is all over but the shouting and that there is now not the slightest doubt but that the Half Breeds will control the state convention. That, however, is a premature conclusion. The Stalwarts are still alive and working and the Half Breeds have something to do besides congratulating themselves.—Green Bay Gazette.

Stevens Point has a fly factory. That's no joke, but true as gospel. And it's run by a woman who employs sixty-eight women in the business, although women generally go to great trouble in persistently killing flies. The Point woman makes artificial flies for fishermen. And despite the fact that frost alone puts a final quietus to the fly every fall, this factory for producing flies is run by Miss Frost.—Berlin Journal.

The Milwaukee Journal on June 13, said: "Take it right here in Milwaukee; there are practically no Half Breeds in the city. They have no reasonable hope of making a mark in the representation at the convention." And yet the same paper now has to print the fact that more than one-third of the delegates elected to the state convention are LaFollette supporters. There never has been a campaign in Wisconsin in which newspapers have gone to such lengths in misrepresentations as they have in this bolters' warfare of abuse and vilification of the government and falsification of public sentiment and of caucus and convention results. There is a whole lot of discredited newspapers in Wisconsin today.—Milwaukee Free Press.

Court Cases.

The case of D. W. Pound vs. Edward F. Moran and Cella Moran, was tried before C. W. Reeder Thursday. The action was dismissed in connection with Cella Moran, because it was shown that she was only eighteen years of age. Dougherty and Scott appeared as attorneys for the plaintiff and Ralph Adair for the defendant. After hearing the evidence on both sides, the court gave it as his findings that the plaintiff was entitled to the coin for which the trial was brought; that the defendant had unjustly detained the same, that the value thereof was sixty dollars; and that the defendant should pay damages amounting to five dollars and the costs of the trial, sixteen dollars and eighty-one cents.

A case attachment by Putnam vs. Lamonde for goods purchased by the latter and unpaid for, was heard in Reeder's Justice court this afternoon. In Jesse Earle's Justice Court this morning, judgment was given against Paul F. Gehrke to the amount of $25 and costs, in all $28.75, due Edward H. Ryan for legal services.

WILLETT S. MAIN DIES SUDDENLY

Brother-in-Law of United States Senator Spooner is Found Dead in Bed.

Madison, Wis., July 5.—(Special).—Ex-State Senator Willett S. Main, brother-in-law of Senator John C. Spooner and a leading pioneer resident of the county was found dead in bed this morning at his farm home in the town of Bloomington Grove, where he had just moved for the summer. He was apparently in usual health when he retired and it is supposed that his death resulted from heart disease.

Felix Geeser.

Felix Geeser, a pioneer resident of the town of Rock, died yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, after an illness of three weeks duration, due to the infirmities of old age. His death occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Eliza Good, of the town of Rock, with whom he had resided for the past eight months. Deceased was in the seventy-ninth year of his life, having been born in Germany on October 20, 1823. Over half a century ago he came to this country, settling in New York where he lived for five years. Then he came farther west and for the past forty-nine years he has been a respected resident of the town of Rock. He was a stone mason by trade and an efficient workman.

One daughter and four sons survive, those who mourn a father's loss being Mrs. Eliza Good, George, Frank, Jacob and Charles Geeser, all of the town of Rock.

Funeral services will be held from Mrs. Good's home tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and the interment will be in the cemetery at Turtleville.

CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING ARE FIFTY YEARS WEDDED

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Willis Surprised by Friends of the G. A. R. and W. R. C.

Yesterday marked the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Willis and although they had planned to spend the day quietly they failed to carry out their plans for their friends considered a golden wedding too auspicious an occasion to be permitted to pass by unnoticed. Consequently a surprise celebration was arranged and successfully carried out under the direction of a committee of ladies from W. H. Sargent Woman's Relief Corps, No. 21. The company was composed almost entirely of ladies of the Relief Corps and their husbands and they met at the Y. M. C. A. building and went together to the Willis' home 206 Locust street.

Last evening was the regular meeting night of W. H. Sargent Post, No. 21 and the meeting adjourned to allow the veterans to join the wedding party. Many personal friends also paid brief calls during the day, leaving congratulations, best wishes and handsome gifts for the bride and groom of fifty years ago.

The wedding feast was served at the spacious lawn surrounding the Willis' home and so enjoyable did the old fashioned visiting prove that all attempts to introduce games were vetoed. A picnic supper was also served on the lawn in the early evening. The Relief Corps had provided an immense wedding cake decorated prettily with flags and flowers, and this was the central feature of a most elaborate wedding feast. About fifty people were served. Miss Ella Willis being assisted by a number of friends in caring for her guests.

Many Gifts
During the evening J. L. Bear in behalf of the guests, presented Mr. and Mrs. Willis with two very handsome rockers. The presentation was happily made and Mr. Willis responded in characteristic style. He and his wife were the recipients of many other elegant gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis were married at South Royalton, Vt., July 4, 1852 and lived in West Lebanon, N. H. for three years after which they came west. They came to Palestine, Ill., in 1855 and lived there until the following year when they moved to Woodstock, Ill. In the fall of 1863 Mr. Willis moved his family from Woodstock to this city where they have resided ever since. Mr. Willis is seventy-three years of age and his wife is six years his junior. Both are active participants in the duties and pleasures of life and both enjoy good health.

Of English Family
William Wallace Willis is a descendant of old English families, both on the paternal and maternal side. His great grandfather, Jonathan Willis, served in the Revolutionary war in a Connecticut regiment under Gen. LaFayette, and the Willis family in England, is a titled one, having a coat of arms and a family motto, "One heart, one way." On his maternal side, Mr. Willis belongs to the Hibbard family, his ancestors having come from England in early colonial times.

Natives of Vermont
Mr. Willis and his wife are both natives of Vermont. He was born in Chelsea, Orange county, June 18, 1829. At the age of nineteen he went to sea and for four years was engaged in mackerel fishing, traveling extensively. After marriage he became a mechanic and he is still actively engaged in his chosen trade. For seventeen years he was employed in the C. & N. W. machine shops and he was pattern maker at the Janesville Machine Works for many years. He has invented many valuable patents. He is now engaged in the manufacture of the Willis automatic axle gauge. He also invented the single center spring buggy and manufactured it for several years.

A Prominent Mason
Mr. Willis is a prominent Mason and Grand Army man. He is a member of the W. H. Sargent Post No. 20 G. A. R. and has served the post as adjutant. He is captain general and past commander of the Knights Templar and is a thirty-second degree Mason, being a member of Western Star Lodge No. 14, F. and A. M., Janesville Chapter No. 5, R. A. M., Janesville Commandery, No. 2, K. T., Wisconsin Consistory, S. P. R. S. Valley of Milwaukee and Tripoli Temple A. A. O. N. M. S., Milwaukee. Mr. Willis served for two years in the civil war in Co. A, 15th Illinois Volunteers.

A Gracious Bride
Mrs. Willis, whose maiden name was Mary Luvinna Thurston, was born in Rochester, Vt., Jan. 21, 1835. She is a charter member of W. H. Sargent W. R. C. No. 21 and has served in every official chair in the corps. She was chaplain for eight years and was one of the recent presidents of the Corps. She is also an active worker in Janesville chapter No. 69, Order Eastern Star.

Their Children
Mr. and Mrs. Willis have two children, Miss Ella Luvinna, who resides at home and George Willis, of Marquette, Mich. They have only one grandchild, little Miss Thalia.

SMASHES HIS TOES

Thomas Kehoe Will Be Laid Up By An Injury Some Time

Thomas Kehoe, an employee of the Crystal Lake Ice Co., had a cake of ice fall on his foot Thursday and four toes were smashed. The injury will lay him up for some time. Clarence Reser, also an employee of the same company had a cake of ice fall from the wagon and land on his big toe, smashing it badly. The accidents occurred within a short time of each other.

WILLIAM O'HARA BURIED

Died in Milwaukee Wednesday As the Result of An Accident

William O'Hara, of Milwaukee, whose remains were laid at rest beside those of his parents and brothers in Mount Olivet cemetery, this morning did not seek death purposefully as was erroneously reported. All the evidence of the people with whom he boarded and the verdict of the coroner's inquest shows that his death was purely accidental.

Mr. O'Hara went to his boarding house between eight and nine o'clock Wednesday evening and retired soon after. The gas fixtures in his room were defective, the stop cock turning completely around so that a person was liable to turn the gas on again after the light had been extinguished. As there was nothing to point to suicide and as this accident had occurred before and former occupants had been nearly asphyxiated, there can be no doubt that Mr. O'Hara's death was accidental. Those who knew him best in life knew how little he was liable to commit such a deed and were greatly shocked at the first report. Mr. O'Hara was forty-seven years of age.

The remains were brought to this city at 12:20 yesterday afternoon by J. D. O'Hara, his only surviving brother. Funeral services were held from St. Mary's church this morning at 10 o'clock, regular mass being celebrated by Rev. Father W. A. Goebel. The services were largely attended and many beautiful flowers told of the high esteem in which the deceased was held in this community. The pall bearers were Patrick Kavanagh, George Woodruff, Charles Connell and John Clark of Kansas City.

F. M. Hanchett of LaCrosse is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Anna M. Hanchett.

TRAP SHOOTERS HOLD A MATCH

WAS A SWEEPSTAKE AFFAIR

McVicar, Brown and McKinney Divide Honors and the Money—A Successful Match.

The Janesville Gun club held a clay pigeon shoot yesterday afternoon at Athletic park. Quite a strong wind was blowing which made the flight of the targets uneven and the shooting difficult. No clean scores were made during the afternoon, although several of the shooters killed all but one of the birds.

The first two matches were at fifteen birds each and the last two at ten, unknown trap, known angles.

No Regular Program
There was no regular program, sweepstakes to suit the shooters being made up before the matches.

In the first match first money went to J. McVicar on 13. Second to W. McVicar on 12 and Kober and Brown divided 3rd on 10. In the second Brown and W. McVicar divided 1st on 14. J. McVicar won 2nd in 11 and McKinney took 3rd on 10. In the third match at 10 birds Brown and McKinney divided first on 9, Kober won second with seven and J. McVicar was third with 6. In the fourth match there was no money up.

The scores were:

ENOCH ARDEN

The ladies of Trinity church announce that on Tuesday evening, July 8th, at the Congregational church parlors, Mrs. J. F. Sweeney and Mrs. Ida Green will present the beautiful melodrama, "Enoch Arden," with musical setting. The arrangement is by Richard Strauss, the most famous of living composers, and as Tennyson's Enoch Arden has always been a literary favorite, the melodrama is always enthusiastically received by cultured people.

It is hoped that the parlors will be filled with those who appreciate the best entertainment. Admission 25 cents.

NEWS OF THE CITY IN BRIEF.

New Cement Walks: Cement walks are being constructed for B. F. Nowlan and T. L. Mason, 107 and 105 South Second Street. Instead of being laid in the same position occupied by the old walk, the new one is being moved out to the line of the street curbing as has already been done with the walks on the opposite side of the street in that block. The sidewalk at 101 and 103 South Second street will be replaced with cement, but will be moved to the street curbing line.

Pays a Fine: It cost Fred Libby $3.33 in the municipal court this morning for the privilege of assaulting Emil Frank, on West Milwaukee St., last Tuesday afternoon. Frank was driving a bakery wagon belonging to T. F. Reilly and was delivering bread at the Merchants' restaurant when Libby came along on a load of crushed stone. He stopped near the bakery wagon and after asking Frank a question or two jumped off his wagon and assaulted him. At the time Frank said he knew of no reason for the assault, but stated in court this morning that the trouble was about a young lady acquaintance.

SACRIFICES ON NATION'S ALTAR

FINGERS, EYES AND WINDOWS

Fatal Firecrackers Do the Usual Amount of Damage—Some of the Injured.

A four-year old boy named Cantwell, who lives in Monterey, will always have a reminder of the glorious Fourth of 1902 in the shape of a crippled left hand caused by the explosion of a giant firecracker, which went off before he let go of it.

The little fellow was taken to Dr. Gibson's office where the injured hand was dressed.

Fingers Blown Off
The first finger was blown off almost entirely down to the knuckle joint and about half the second finger was gone. The hand was also split open and lacerated between the thumb and first finger and between the second and third fingers. Although the hand is in bad shape the doctor thinks what is left of it can be saved, but it will always be in bad shape.

May Lose An Eye
It is also reported that Cornelius Harrison, an engineer on the St. Paul road had one eye badly injured on Thursday night by a fire cracker that was thrown by some careless person and exploded just as it hit his face. It was a wonder that he did not lose both eyes as the cracker was a big one and exploded directly in front of his face.

Breaks Windows
One of the large plate glass windows in McNamara's store was broken on Thursday night by parties celebrating the Fourth.

Bad Sky Rocket
A sky rocket set off by some parties standing near the postal telegraph office Thursday night knocked out a light of glass in the fifth story of the Jackman block.

Another Window Glass
A large window in Con-McDonald's restaurant was shattered by the heat from a pin wheel which was fastened to the casing.

A DELIGHTFUL PARTY

Misses Bostwick Entertain At The Golf Club House

A very enjoyable dancing party was given Thursday evening at the Golf club house by Misses Raelne and Harriet Bostwick in honor of Miss Edith Martin, of Morrison, Ill. About fifty couples were in attendance at the party and spent a very pleasant evening.

The club house was handsomely decorated in red, white and blue in honor of the Fourth. Roy Carter furnished the music for the dance and choice refreshments were served during the evening.

CLINTON

Clinton, July 3.—The most charming social function of the season occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ames on the evening of June 30th when Mr. Elbert Goodsell of Sterling, Ill., and Miss Maud Ames, one of Clinton's most popular young ladies, were united in marriage. In the presence of one hundred guests. The lawn was prettily lighted by Japanese lanterns and the house was tastefully decorated with roses, ferns and other flowers, lending their fragrance and beauty for the happy occasion. Numerous festoons of pink and white added grace to the dining room while the alcove in the parlor, where the bridal party stood, was banked in solid green. As the strains of the wedding march pealed forth the bridal party appeared preceded by Mrs. Floyd Barrus and Mrs. E. B. Kizer, with wide bands of ribbon, make a pathway across the room in which two little boys in white, Mas-Homer Kizer and Donald Barrus, strewed roses before the bride and groom as they proceeded to their places, where Rev. T. J. Parsons, pastor of the Baptist church, spoke the words which made them husband and wife. After hearty congratulations ice cream and cake were served and a serenade was given by the Cornet band. Mr. J. C. Howarth favored the company with a vocal solo and Mrs. Ellis of Chicago gave a recitation. "The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Goodsell of Freeport, Ill., and came here several years ago and entered the furniture store of his uncle, Mr. M. P. Treat, where by his gentlemanly and affable manner he won many friends and was also the leader of the band until his removal last September to Sterling, Ill. The bride was attired in white organdy and carried a large bouquet of white roses. She has just returned from an extended trip to the Pacific coast with the Schubert Ladies quartette, being a young lady of rare musical ability and winning personality. The presents, numerous and costly, were an expression of the high esteem in which the young people are held by their many friends and only the best wishes follow them to their new home in Sterling, where they will reside. Among the guests were the father and mother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Goodsell, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Ellis, Mrs. Myrtle Garrison, Miss Sarah Garrison, Mr. E. W. Goodsell, Dr. W. B. Peck, Miss Carrie Warner, at lot Freeport; Mrs. H. C. Ellis, Miss Hattie Holdsworth, Chicago; Mrs. C. E. Kyle, Bolton, Ill., Mr. W. E. Jones, Belvidere; Mrs. Wm.
